Hamiltons Return From 3-Month Tour Of Pacific

The nine Hamiltons are home again after a tour of the Pacific area that began June 15 and ended with their return Sept. 11.

The Hamiltons live on St. Francis Rd., just east of Sacred Heart High School and the Franciscan Sisters convent.

The parents, Dr. Gene C. Hamilton and Dr. Eleanor Hamilton, and their three sons and two daughters make up what could be called a medical family.

Dr. Gene is a physician and surgeon, Dr. Eleanor is a pediatrician. They have their offices in Chicago. The eldest son, Gene T., 24, is a senior in Northwestern University's School of Medicine. Janet, 23, a laboratory technician, is doing graduate work at Southern Illinois University. John 22, and Mary Joan, are in pre-med. on the Carbondale campus of SIU, where John is a senior.

James, 20, was going to SIU but this year is a senior, pre-med. student at Northwestern. Joel, 15, is a student at Lincoln-Way High School and Jay, 12, is in 7th grade at Ann Rutledge.

About a year ago the family began planning the trip.

"We wanted to visit hospitals and clinics," Dr. Gene said, and see where we could be of help."

And off they went. They flew to Los Angeles and from there to Tahiti. Then to the Fiji Islands, New Zealand, Australia, Singapore, Thailand, the Philippines, Hong Kong, Japan and Hawaii.

In Japan they traveled by boat and went island hopping. From Japan they flew to Hawaii but made the journey from there to San Francisco by boat.

"We went to places like the leprosarium outside of Manila," Dr. Gene said. "We saw the dire need for assistance in every possible way. They had no bed sheets. They had no bandages; no antiseptics, no ointments."

"The amazing thing is how many children are born to these people that have no place to go. So they're kept in an orphanage, about 250 of them--"

"Two hundred and eighty, to be exact," broke in Mary Joan, who has quite a memory for names, places and numbers.

"The first thing we did on reaching Hong Kong," said Dr. Eleanor, "was to buy sheets and send them to Manila."

"There is a hospital for the poor in Tahiti," Dr. Gene went on, "a relief hospital. People are just housed there. Their families come and take care of them and provide them with food. But there's very good care a few blocks away."

The doctor was impressed with the medical care given in New Zealand.

"It's excellent; can't be beat," he said.

"Singapore is the same way as Tahiti -- people who can pay get along well. Same in Hong Kong."

A memorable event for the males was a night climb up Mt. Fujiyama.

"We started about 10:30," said James, "and reached the top about 6:00 in the morning and saw the sunrise."

"The guide told us no one under 15 had made the hike," said John, "but Jay did!"

The going up part consumed about nine hours but coming down took only a third of that time.

The Hamiltons spent a month in Australia and drove over a lot of the country. They were guests of the Al Ericksons there.

The Ericksons had once lived with the Hamiltons. At Honolulu the Hamiltons visited Dr. and Mrs. Philip W. H. Chock.

"He was my resident in Cook County Hospital," Dr. Gene explained.

Dr. Eleanor, readers will recall, was the one who had the happy idea of getting a bus for St. Mary School thru trading stamps and directed the campaign to a successful conclusion.

Chapman Has Questions About Junior College

What the future holds in store for the Junior College program in this area is something that might even cause computers to slip a cog.

The Lincoln - Way High School Board would like to have some answers. So would residents of the district that have to foot the bill. And certainly the Joliet Township High School Board, which also operates the Joliet Junior College, is vitally interested, according to information gathered by this newspaper.

Petitions are on file now for a referendum on establishment of a Class I

Henry Kuester, Area Resident, Dies Sept. 24

Funeral services were conducted from the Hirsch Memorial Chapel, Tinley Park, Tuesday, September 27 for Henry Kuester, 79 years old, of Mokena. He died last Saturday, Sept. 24 in the Suburban Convalescence Home in South Chicago Heights, following a lingering illness.

Born in Green Garden township, August 30, 1887, he lived in this area his entire lifetime.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Anna Hinspeter of Mokena, two brothers, Fred of Watseka and Herman of Frankfort. He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother Charles who died in 1954.

The Rev. LaVern Smith, pastor of St. Peter's United Church of Christ of Frankfort officiated at the service. Interment was in the church cemetery in Green Garden township.

Joliet Junior College in the area, Lincoln - Way High School is interested because it is included in the proposed Joliet Junior College District.

If the petitions are approved at Springfield, a public hearing would be held at which opinions could be voiced. The State Board of Higher Education is scheduled to consider the petition Oct. 4 and if it is approved it goes back to the State Junior College Board Oct. 14 to set a date for the public hearing. The public hearing would be held in November and if approval is given County Superintendent of Schools Boyd Bucher would call a referendum. It is expected that such an election would be held in January or February.

If the voters approved formation of the district it would start operation July 1, 1967. But to win approval the proposal must carry in both urban and non - urban territory.

Lincoln - Way superintendent, A. Hunter Chapman is not satisfied with the situation. He said other school administrators had similar views.

"As far as I have been able to learn," he said, "very little information about the proposed junior college has been given to the people in our district."

"For instance, the curriculum. Very little has been said about that. In my mind a junior college in this area should give emphasis to vocational study as well as collegiate courses. About 50 per cent of the high school graduates will never make it thru college. A large number will never be able to enter college. We are in an industrial area and I believe that a great deal of emphasis should put on vocational training to prepare students for employment. If they can get the proper vocational training they have more likelihood of obtaining better jobs.

"Another thing I would like to have explained is the proposed location of this junior college," Chapman went on. "If it should be located on the far west side of Joliet or at Morris it would be very difficult for students from this area to attend unless they have automobiles"

Chapman also pointed out that the proposed tax rate for the Joliet Junior College District was 9 1/2 cents per $100 equalized assessed valuation.

"In my opinion," he said "this is not a realistic rate. I think the public is entitled to more figures as to the cost of this undertaking and if the proposed 9 1/2 cent rate won't do the job the people should be told and also told how much they might expect to pay."

Under the junior college law a high school that does not belong to a junior college district is required to pay tuition fee for students within its boundaries who elect to attend junior college.

So far such high schools are limited to a three cent tax levy for this tuition and if that is insufficient they are supposed to take the money out of the funds the taxpayers pay to operate the high school. A move is now on foot to get the next session of the legislature to raise this tuition tax to a point where it would bring in sufficient returns to meet the high school's obligation to the junior college.

Weiner Roast, Sale Termed Big Success

MR. JAMES PEYTON
Telephone: 532 - 1516

Our bake and white elephant sale was a tremendous success as each and everyone contributed the ultimate and allowed us to surpass our goal by many dollars. The arrangement of the merchandise was handled by a committee headed by Mrs. Marilyn Thacker. After the sale was concluded we had a community weiner roast which was attended by most of the people in the community. This was our first attempt to create a little community social life and from the results I think there will be many more and different types of affairs in the future.

The education tax rate increase was voted on Saturday Sept. 24th, 1966 and passed so you will get an increase on your taxes. We had a tremendous turnout at the polls, thanks to Julius Sandy and others, for their free taxicab type service of transporting the voters to the school. This service is provided every election day.

Little Bobby Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lee of Pleasant ave. underwent surgery on Monday Sept. 26th. We all hope you get well soon.

I would like to remind everyone that the Tinley Gardens Homeowners Assoc. regular meeting will be held on October 3rd, at 8:00 P.M., at the home of Julius Sandy 9307 Ethyl Lane. Remember you must have your dues paid by this date to vote in the November election. Lets all be sure to qualify and vote.

Congratulations to Joseph Penn on his satisfactory completion of the officer training program for policeman at Orland Park.

Anyone who would like to hold an office in the Tinley Gardens Homeowners Assn; please contact Mrs. Bonnie Schultz before our November meeting and have your name placed on the list, as she is in charge of the nominating committee and would like to present a good choice of qualified personnel to direct the assn; in the forthcoming year. We would appreciate all interested people contacting her as we have many elected and appointed jobs to fill. These people must live within the assn; boundary lines.

Debbie Engel was rushed to Bob Roberts Hospital with acute asthma and will be confined for at least a week.

The Ladies of Immanuel Lutheran Church, LaPorte Road, will have a fall festival Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 19 and 20. Hours will be 7 to 9 p.m. on the 19th, and 10 to 2 on the 20th., with luncheon being served that day. Many articles will be for sale and an added feature this year will be the Nearly New Shop.

Mrs. T. Arthur Shoop, president of the Mokena Book Club acknowledged with deep gratitude the contributions of five Mokena organizations towards the expenses of the recent Library Referendum. In response to a letter appealing for financial aid to underwrite the Referendum the following organizations responded with donations: Chamber of Commerce, Garden Club, Women's Club, the VFW Auxiliary and the Mokena Lions Club.

"Particular thanks should go to the Lions", said Mrs. Shoop, for their staunch support of the Library and their willingness to stand behind the Book Club with a Lion's Share donation. We are grateful to all organizations that aided us in this endeavor and acknowledge our indebtedness to them. Without their financial assistance and support at the polls we would never have been able to bring the Library vote to its successful conclusion."

At the first fall meeting of Cub Scout Pack 39, Willis Guth was named the new Cubmaster who is also, at present, the leader of the Webelos Den. As serving the two positions would require more time than he could allow a volunteer is being sought as Webelos Den leader.

Two new den mothers also joined the group, Mrs. Eleanor Wrath and Mrs. June Gillette.

Awards presented at the meeting were: Fred Guendling, and Hugh Peterson, gold arrow; Gary Gillette, Den Chief cord; Richard Hughes, bear badge, silver and gold arrow.

Posting and retiring of the colors was in charge of Mrs. Bernie Rinke's den 1. A skit was presented by den 2 with Mrs. Bernice Leonard serving as den mother and Mrs. June Gillette den 3 led in the singing of songs. Following the program refreshments were served by Mrs. Louise Kappel's den 4.

An organizational and planning meeting of Cub Scout Pack 40 will be held Tuesday, Oct. 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Carpenter street school. A new cubmaster, den mothers and committeemen are urgently needed if the Pack is to continue, it is stated by Robert Hannafin, who has served as cubmaster for the past three years and is seeking to be replaced.

The Pack area includes all families residing west of Wolf road and north of the Rock Island tracks. This area includes the following subdivisions: Arbury Hills, Sunny Acres, Glenn Heights, Rolling Meadows and the village of Marley. If a denmother and assistant could be secured from each of the above subdivisions it would aid in the shortage of help and would also give the boys on a waiting list the opportunity to join the group.

The next Pack meeting has been set for Thursday, Oct. 27 at the Carpenter street school.

The Mokena couples bridge club met Sept. 25 at Braun's restaurant, New Lenox, Co. - hostesses were Les and Eleanor Brownlee and Elsie and George Helgeson. The club celebrated its first anniversary. Toots Muehler, president and Elsie Helgeson, secy., were re-elected to serve another year.

Prizes were won by Dean Rueckert, Marge Istel, Trish Marcoux and Leo Marcoux. Consolations were won by George Helgeson and Wes Cappel.

MARINE PRIVATE Robert N. Nieubuvrt, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Nieubuvrt, 15167 Hiawatha Trail, Orland Park, has completed four weeks of individual combat training at Camp Pendleton, Calif.

Mokena To Have Public Kindergarten Next Fall

It was recently decided by the Mokena Board of Education that public kindergarten will become a reality beginning next fall. Kindergarten has been under consideration for sometime, but lack of classroom space in the past has prevented it from being introduced into the curriculum. Most of the schools in the Lincoln-Way area have kindergarten; Arbury Hills, Frankfort, Manhattan, and New Lenox. For the past several years the Mokena Woman's Club has operated a kindergarten but it had to be limited to 25 pupils. Supt. Ennis reports that 100 pupils will probably enroll for kindergarten according to the latest school census figures. Kindergarten will be open to all children of the Mokena School District. Parochial families may send their children to the public kindergarten even tho they plan to attend first grade at St. Mary's. With this in mind, plans are being finalized for the expected enrollment. Plans call for both morning and afternoon sessions of 50 pupils, 25 per classroom. Thus two rooms and two teachers will be needed.

Financially, the kindergarten will be no burden, for the Mokena School District is an equalization state aid school, which simply means that the increased state aid due to kindergarten attendance, will more than offset all kindergarten expenditures including salaries of the teachers, Supt. Ennis said.

Transportation will be available one way per session, to bring the pupils to school in the morning, and to take the afternoon session children home at 3:30. The transportation program can absorb the additional students without any additional expense, it was said. Monthly fees will be similar to current bus rates for grades 1-8 students. Any kindergarten pupil that has no brother or sister in school would pay $2 per month. A kindergarten fee of $8 will cover all expenses for supplies, workbooks, and milk for the entire year.

What about the kindergarten curriculum? Is kindergarten just a baby-sitting service? Does a good kindergarten teach children to read and do arithmetic? These are the most common questions parents raise on the subject of kindergarten. Actually, most educators now agree that kindergarten is one of the most important educational experiences a child can have. Supt. Ennis discussed the subject.

"Children who enter school with a feeling of confidence in themselves and trust in their teachers almost always do well throughout school," he said. "Conversely, children who begin formal schooling with a feeling of doubt, suspicion, or distrust, often have difficulty. Studies of children with different reading achievements reveal that success, or lack of it, depends to a very large extent on the attitudes the children bring to school. Personality characteristics acquired early in life are far more stable than those developed later. One-half of all growth in intelligence takes place between birth and the age of four, authorities say and the next largest increase, about 30 per cent, occurs between the ages of four and eight.

"Kindergarten is considered so important that," he went on, "the White House Conference of 1961 on Children and Youth recommended their establishment in all schools. The question of kindergarten, then is certainly more basic than whether or not it should teach children to read. It should above all be designed to make the child's first learning experience outside the home a pleasant and worthwhile one. It should offer all the children opportunities to work alone and in groups, and to learn from each other.

"All who attend a good kindergarten will have a significant start in the complicated process of learning. The beginning years at school can render no more important service to children than to help each child to develop as an intellectual, curious, loving, competent, self-confident, informed, and responsible individual.

"Some of the major purposes of the Mokena Kindergarten," Supt. Ennis concluded, "will be to stimulate children to use their minds and bodies, help children to feel adequate and able to work with people and things, to help them to understand and live intelligently in their world, facilitate sturdy growth by providing the guidance, space, freedom, services, and equipment needed, protect children from hazards to health and safety, help them to find a comfortable, contributing place in their group, and to teach the children to manage themselves, their materials, the routines of the day, and to take initiative in planning and doing things."

Reactivate Arsenal Leading Facilities

Loading, assembling and packing of air and ground munitions will commence shortly at the Joliet Army Ammunition Plant, U.S. Rubber Company, which has been the maintenance contractor, will be the contractor operator. This will permit a close integration with the explosives facility, which has been in production since January 1966.

Present plans call for the employment of approximately 2500 contractor employees by September 1967, in addition to about 3100 now employed in the JAAP explosive unit.

Ground was broken for the loading unit, formerly known as the Elwood Ordnance plant, in November 1940. The first 155mm shell was loaded in July 1941. Sanderson and Porter was the operating contractor until November 1945. Peak employment of 13,400 contractor employees was reached in June 1944.

World War II production included 350,000 tons of bombs, 26 million rounds of artillery ammunition and 30 million support items such as fuzes.

In December 1945, the Kankakee and Elwood Ordnance Plants were consolidated to become what is now known as Joliet Army Ammunition Plant.

Proposes Former Church Serve Mokena As Village Hall And Public Library

Present plans call for use of the former Immanuel Lutheran Church, in the Public Square, as the tract was described in early day Mokena, as a village hall and library, according to a resolution adopted at the regular meeting of the Mokena Village Board Sept. 21.

The resolution, proposed in a motion by Trustee Gary Chase and seconded by Trustee Clarence Zugenbuehler, is as follows:

"That the Library Board be informed that it appears that the title to both the land

Matthew Smattik Dies Following Long Illness

Funeral services were held Sept. 27 for Matthew N. Smattik, age 70, of 115 Francis Rd., New Lenox. Mr. Smattik died on Sept. 24, at Silver Cross Hospital following a year's illness.

Born in Chicago, Mr. Smattik had operated restaurants in East Chicago, until he moved to this area in 1951.

He is survived by his wife, Katherine, nee Dolinor, two daughters, Anne (Mrs. Sam Dilleto) of Palos Park, Dorothy (Mrs. Robert Geiser) of New Lenox, four granddaughters, 1 brother Andrew of Fort Lauderdale, Fla. and one brother and one sister in Europe.

Removal was to Baskerville Chapel, New Lenox, where services were held at 9:30, Sept. 27, then on to St. Jude's Church for mass.

Burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery, Joliet.

the building would remain with the land.

The Methodist Church, which is also located on the Public Square, signed an agreement when it built an addition about 15 years ago to the effect that when the structure was abandoned for church purposes it would revert to the village.

No such agreement has been found and apparently none was made when the two churches were built originally, it was said, but the village Board believes that an understanding was had then similar to that put in writing relative to the Methodist Church addition.

While the resolution uses such terms as "temporarily" and would indicate that the library might be asked to move at any time, this is not the intention, and the building of the Lutheran Church in the Public Square belongs to the Village of Mokena and that the Village Attorney has been instructed to secure title evidence as to the ownership of the land.

"That the Village Board may find the need to make use of the whole or a part of the building for the village offices in the near future if it has the right to do so and that the village is pleased to allow the library to use the upstairs portion of the building temporarily for storage of books and general public library with the understanding that the Library Board may be required to move and that the village has not finally determined its rights and authority in the building."

The church building was abandoned when the new Lutheran edifice was completed. The church never had title to the land, the property having been given to the community for religious and public purposes when the land was first subdivided, it was explained.

The church board had planned to sell the building and advertised for bids. The Mokena Library Board made the only bid. It is understood that the figure was $1,500. In the meantime the village board has unearthed information, Chase said, which would indicate that Chase said. The board believes that an arrangement can be worked out so that the property can be used as both a library and village hall to the satisfaction of both sides. Neither has much money to spend for construction, it was pointed out and use of the former church building would be a solution to their problems. There would have to be some expenditure, of course, to fit the building for its proposed new uses.

Window Displays Mark 4-H Week

Window displays throughout the county make up one phase of the local observance of National 4-H Week, Sept. 24 - Oct. 1, according to Webster E. Bay, Will County assistant farm adviser.

Window displays feature various phases of 4-H work under the theme for National 4-H Week, "4-H...Learning for Living."

Will County 4-H Club Federation, the organization which represents all 4-H clubs in the county, will present its display in the window of the National Bank of Joliet, Scott and Van Buren.

According to Bay, sixteen 4-H clubs will have displays in many communities. Clubs and locations of their displays are: Green Garden Go - Getters, Green Garden Insurance building, junction of Center Rd., and Peotone-Frankfort blacktop; Homer Fire Flies, First National Bank of Lockport, Lockport; Jackson Champions, Cochran's Heating and Plumbing, Manhattan; Joliet Plow

Membership Offers Varied Opportunities

Open to all boys and girls, 4-H Club membership offers many opportunities through participation in the educational and citizenship building program, according to Webster Bay, Will County assistant farm adviser.

Members, meeting in their own 4-H Club, are able to develop as individuals while participating in a group.

They plan and carry out their own program under the guidance of volunteer adult leaders. They elect their own officers, whose responsibility it is to see that the club operates properly.

In individual work, members develop self reliance and learn new skills by enrolling in one or more projects. Bay reports that 4-H members have a choice of nearly 50 projects ranging from electricity to livestock.

Through group work, members learn citizenship, leadership and cooperation.

Emphasis is placed on finishing started projects.

Teen-age boys and girls are invited to join a 4-H Club during National 4-H Club Week, Sept. 24 - Oct. 1. Any boy or girl between nine and 19 years may join. Boys and girls who are presently eight years old, but will be nine years old before Jan. 1, 1967, are eligible for 1966-1967 project membership.

If there is no 4-H Club in the community, parents or prospective members should call the Farm Adviser's office, 727-1173, Joliet, or the Home Adviser's office, 723-2265, Joliet, or write or stop by the county extension offices at 100 Manhattan Rd., Joliet.

Whether you live on the farm or in the city, you can learn by doing through 4-H. Now, during National 4-H Club Week, you should find out what 4-H has to offer you, by contacting your county extension agent.

4-H Club Program Big And Booming

It's big! That's one way to describe 4-H. Twenty-two million Americans are former 4-H Club members. Presently about 1,300 young people belong to Will County 4-H Clubs, and more than 75,000 4-H'ers belong to clubs in Illinois. In America more than 2 1/4 million young people between nine and 19 years of age are 4-H Club members.

4-H is a practical, out-of-classroom educational program supported nationally by the Federal Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. At the state level, 4-H Club work is part of the Cooperative Extension Service, University of Illinois College of Agriculture. County farm and home advisers and assistants conduct the county 4-H programs.

Historically, 4-H has been a major factor in developing America's agricultural success story. When the first 4-H Clubs were formed nearly 50 years ago, educators saw the 4-H program as a stepping-stone to improved farming and homemaking practices on the nation's farms. Many farmers were reluctant to accept new-fangled ideas coming from the nation's colleges, but they would let their sons try the ideas.

Farm advisers had to reach the father by working through the son. The 4-H project was the door through which the first purebred livestock was introduced and through which new seed varieties, cultural practices and insect and disease control methods were tried and proven.

During the early 4-H years, strong emphasis was placed on the traditional projects for rural boys and girls. But times have changed, and so has 4-H philosophy. New projects and activities have been added to the traditional ones.

Two important changes in rural America have affected 4-H goals. First, modern farmers accept new ideas more readily. But more important is the population shift from the farm to urban areas. Today only 10% of America's farm youth can expect to own and operate profitable farms. The rest of the nation's rural youth must find partial or full-time employment off the farm.

4-H is meeting the changes and challenges. One big step is the increased emphasis on projects and activities that indirectly offer vocational and career guidance to young people. Many of the changes make 4-H equally as appealing and useful to the non-farm boy and girl as to those who live on farms.

Fast-growing project areas include creative crafts, automotive care and safety, room improvement, electricity, money management, foods, clothing, photography, flower gardening and home grounds improvement.

In each project area, 4-H'ers find opportunities to use their leadership and public-speaking talents. Most 4-H projects relate to career and job opportunities. Club members study the requirements and qualifications they must meet in order to enter the career areas that interest them. Usually the club member has several opportunities to meet people in those areas.

Present Illinois 4-H Club program has the following objectives: It aims at helping young people develop leadership talents and abilities, recognize the value of research and learn the decision-making process.

Club work also helps young people understand how agriculture and home economics contribute to the economy and human welfare. Members are encouraged to explore career opportunities, continue needed education and practice healthful living and constructive use of leisure time.

Attended 4-H Conservation Memorial Camp

Three 4-H Club members from Will County attended the 1966 4-H Club Conservation Camp held at 4-H Memorial Camp near Monticello Aug. 22-26.

They were Bill Francis and Martin Pollack, both of Wilmington, and Kenneth Baker of Manhattan.

Webster Bay, Assistant Farm Adviser, said the camp provides a good opportunity for boys to learn about conservation and the outdoors.

Delegates to the camp attended classes during mornings and parts of the afternoons and evenings. The classes covered Game Management, Forestry, Pond Management, Soil Conservation and related areas of study. During some of the afternoons, the delegates participated in rifle and shot gun shooting, swimming and other sports, as well as crafts and other activities.

Honor 4-H Club Leaders At Recognition Banquet

South Cook County 4-H Club Leaders will be honored at a special recognition banquet on Sept. 29. The banquet will be held at Chuck Cavalini's Restaurant, Midlothian, starting at 7:30 p.m. The "Singing Rockets" of Rich Township High School, under the direction of W. Jay Hoel, will provide the entertainment.

The banquet date is during the National 4-H Club Week and according to Bill Whiteside, farm adviser, and Bea Bagby, assistant home adviser, is one of two major activities to call attention to 4-H Club Week in South Cook County. Local 4-H Club groups will also participate in a special Window Display Contest.

One hundred-twenty adult 4-H Club leaders direct the activities of nearly 1200 boys and girls enrolled in the 4-H Club program, according to Whiteside and Bagby. Sixty-seven older 4-H members serving as Junior Leaders give assistance to the adult leaders.

The recognition banquet is being sponsored by the South Cook County 4-H Club Committees and the South Cook County 4-H Fair Association in cooperation with 27 business, industry,

This is National 4-H Club Week -- a time for recognizing 4-H in the community. We salute America's two and a quarter million 4-H'ers and also the nearly 525 thousand volunteer leaders serving 4-H Clubs coast to coast. All young people between nine and 19 can join 4-H and if you're over 19 you can help by becoming a leader. Call or write your county extension office and offer your help -- or better yet, stop in and visit with the agents.

Path of 4-H clovers now stretches around the world. More than 75 countries have 4-H Clubs or similar youth organizations. Sept. 24 through Oct. 1 is National 4-H Club Week.

and civic groups in South Cook County. The table donors include: Andrew Corporation, Orland Park; Armour Agricultural Chemical Co., Chicago Heights; Bank of Park Forest, Park Forest; Bremen State Bank, Tinley Park; Cargill Grain Corporation, Chicago; Cook County Farm Bureau, Tinley Park; Gallagher Asphalt Corporation, Thornton; Homemakers Extension Units of South Cook County; Illinois Bell Telephone Co., Harvey; Illinois Grain Corporation, Chicago; International Harvester Co., Broadview; International Minerals and Chemical Corporation, Chicago Heights; Jardine's Motel and Restaurant, Tinley Park; Jewel Tea

Each table donor will have two representatives in attendance.

Now's The Time To Become 4-H Member

The 4-H Club near you is just starting a new year of fun-filled activities.

According to Webster E. Bay, Will County Assistant Farm Adviser, National 4-H Club Week, Sept. 24 to Oct. 1, is the best time to join. "Clubs have organizational matters out of the way, and they will soon start many other activities."

Bay says the best way to join 4-H is to attend a club meeting with a friend who belongs. Club's leader will give you an enrollment card and will help you select an interesting and enjoyable project.

According to Bay, you belong to 4-H when you pick your project and send the enrollment card to the county extension office. Soon afterwards you will receive your project book and record sheet.

As a first-year member, you can try to earn a 4-H achievement pin. First, you must attend two-thirds of your club's meetings after you join. You must also give a talk or a project report at one of your club meetings.

You must have a project and should keep accurate records on the work you do on your project. Sometime during the summer you will have a chance to exhibit your project at the 4-H show or at an achievement meeting or project tour. If you can do these five things, you will be a 4-H achievement member.

Safety Essays Can Win Scholarships

Gerald W. Cavanagh, president of the Chicago Motor Club, has announced that the Chicago Motor Club, thru the cooperation of the Illinois Editors' Traffic Safety Seminar, will provide a grant of $2,500 for $500 scholarships to be awarded to five high school seniors who are declared winners of a traffic safety essay contest sponsored by the Seminar.

All essays to compete in the contest must reach Seminar Headquarters (66 East South Water Street, Chicago, Ill. 60601) before Jan. 1, 1967. Each must be signed

The five scholarship winners will come from among these entrants whose essays were published by the local newspapers. Scholarship awards will be presented at the 10th annual Seminar meeting in Springfield, April 14, 1967. All other published essays will earn special honorable mention awards.

Mark Hotchkin Dies Tuesday

Funeral services for Mark Hotchkin, 63, will be held from the Hickey Vandenberg Funeral Home, Tinley Park, to St. George Church, at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Oct. 1. Mr. Hotchkin, a former area resident, died at his home in Chicago, Tuesday, Sept. 27.

He was an embalmer with the Mee and Ramme Funeral Home, Chicago.

Mr. Hotchkin is survived by two brothers, William and John of Mokena, and one sister Mrs. Alda May Z. Mallen of Chicago.

Visitation will be at the chapel Thursday and Friday.

Burial will be in St. Mary's Cemetery, Mokena.

Injuries Fatal To Area Youth

An 18 year old New Lenox youth was fatally injured last Saturday, September 24, while at work at the Caterpillar Tractor Company at Joliet.

Frank B. Knowles, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Knowles Jr., had been employed with the company for the past four months in the parts department. He was operating a handpowered truck and was trying to turn the load when he was pinned by the handle of the vehicle against a steel storage rack.

Fellow employees came to his aid in freeing him and was removed to Saint Joseph hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

His father, William Knowles Jr., also a Caterpillar employee, was on duty at the time in a different building.

Coroner Willard Blood stated Mr. Knowles died from crushing chest injuries and broken neck. The coroner said this is the second industrial accident death in Will County this year.

Surviving in addition to his parents are a brother Terry, a sister, Marjorie of New Lenox; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Green of New Lenox and parental grandparent, William Knowles Sr. of Joliet.

Resident Succumbs

The mother of a Mokena man died in Jackson Park hospital, Chicago, following a short illness. Services were held from the Lukas Funeral Home, Calumet Park with interment in St. Mary's Cemetery, at 87th and Kedzie.

Mrs. Clarence (Mabel) Niedringhaus of Chicago and Bass Lake, Ind. was well known in the locality as she and her husband owned a resort home at Bass Lake which they rented during the summer months to various families in the area over the past 15 years.

At one time they also operated a roller skating rink at Tinley Park and Roseland and were in the grocery business in Chicago for eight years.

Survivors include her husband, Clarence, who is retired from the Hunding Dairy Company; a son Walter, of Mokena and a daughter Mrs. Robert (Shirley) Alexander of Chicago; five grandchildren, and four sisters and a brother of Chicago.

"I shoot golf in the low 70's.
If it gets any colder I quit."

They go from strength to strength. (Psalms 84:7)

Often we hear of a person accomplishing some feat of strength that would seem physically impossible under ordinary circumstances. When the strength was needed, we are given the extra power to meet the situation.
With God we were able to meet the challenge before us. God is the source of all life, all strength, all power. We can trust God to guide us through every day.
